

BABL Cancellation Policy

Effective date: September 10, 2026

You can cancel anytime

You may cancel your BABL membership at any time. There is no minimum commitment period beyond your current paid annual term.

How to cancel

To cancel, email billing@bablhq.com (or use the cancellation option in the Member Portal, if available) with your name and the email address associated with your membership. We'll confirm your cancellation in writing.

What happens after you cancel

- Your membership will not renew for another annual term.
- You retain access to BABL — including community channels, events, and workshops — through the end of your current paid membership term.
- Once your current term ends, your access to member spaces (WhatsApp community, Wings, Regional Communities, member portal, and events) will be removed.

No refunds

Cancelling your membership does not entitle you to a refund of any dues already paid, whether you cancel partway through your term or choose not to renew. See our Refund Policy for full details.

Involuntary cancellation

BABL may also suspend or terminate your membership for a violation of our Terms of Service and Code of Conduct. Membership terminated for a violation is treated the same way as a voluntary cancellation for purposes of refunds: dues already paid are not refunded.
